Baseball Warriors Bring Home the TVL Championship

The Medfield Baseball Warriors captured the TVL title by crushing the Westwood Wolverines 24-4 in the final game of the season. This concluded a dream season with an overall record of 17-3. This was the first time the title had been won since 1945.

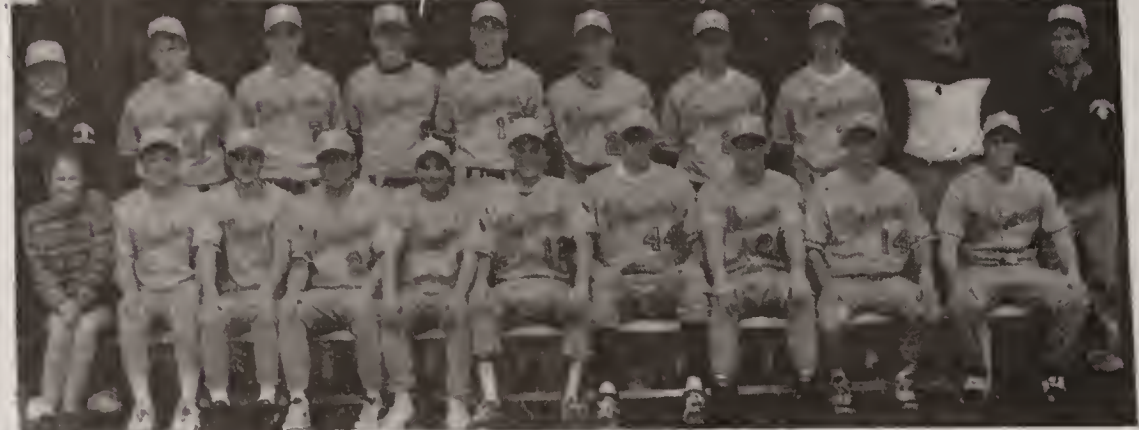

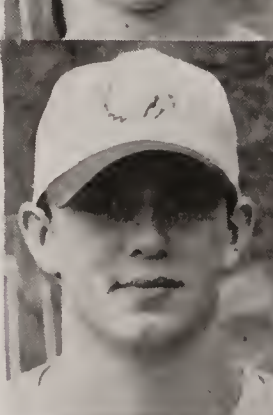

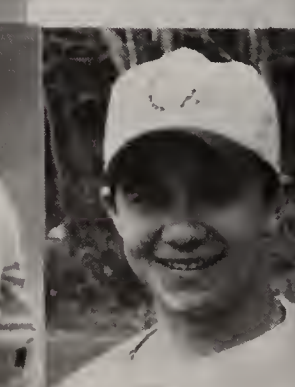

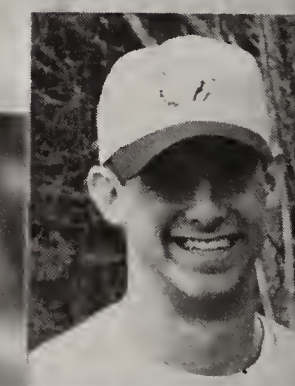

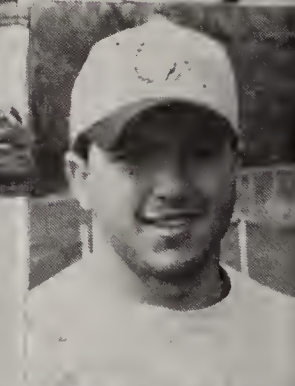

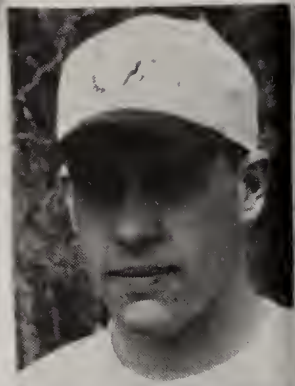

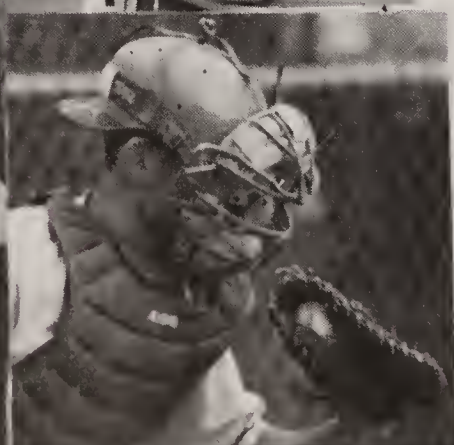

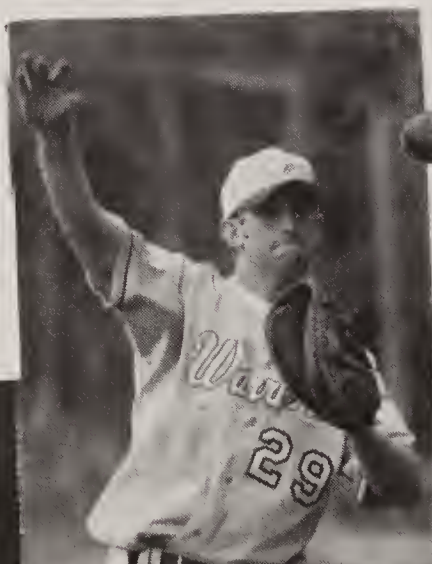

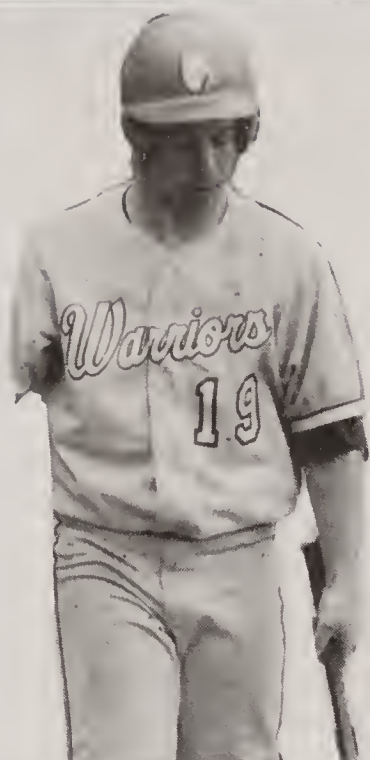

This year's team had high expectations since the first day of practice since most of last year's varsity squad was returning. Led by captains Brian "Big Poppa" Chase and Matt "Papa Chubby" Callahan, the Warriors were on fire in the beginning of the season with an early record of 12-1.

The offense never really lagged this season as they launched nearly 20 homeruns, with at least one coming from every starting position in the field. The team batted .359 during the season, which was the highest of any team in the TVL. Along with the powerful offense was the deep pitching staff. Depth was the key to the pitching staff because of many back-to-back games, due to rain.

This was also a special season for Doc Nickerson, who recorded his 100th victory in his 12th year as skipper of the team.

To help lighten the load of coaching, Doc's son, Mark Nickerson was recruited and became a key component to the Warrior's tourney drive.

The Warriors climbed to 16th ranked in the state and received a number one ranking in the Division II MIAA Tournament. The Medfield Warriors have usually been in the Division III tournament, but this year one too many males bumped the team into the division II rankings. The tournament was a disappointment with an early exit in the first round to Wareham 5-1 but the season was an overall success. Jason Mohan summed up the season by saying, "I was amazing this year, and the rest of the team was okay, too."

Softball Team ROCKS!

by
Mike Konevich

This year's softball squad was not as powerful as in years past. The loss of seniors Meredith Dunn, Allison Foley, and Vickie Scaramuzo loomed large on the team's overall record. The team started slowly, but finished up in strong fashion.

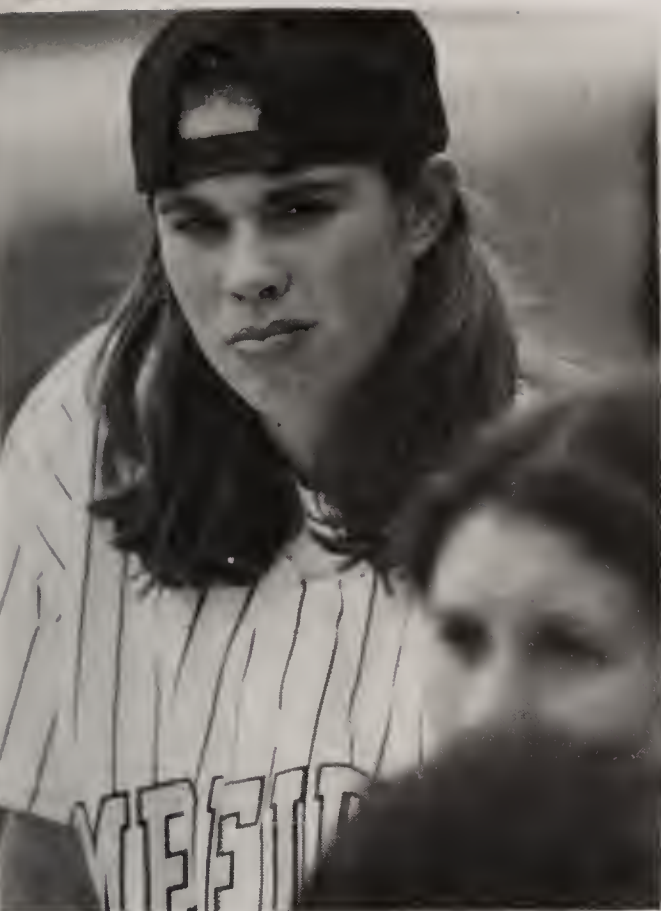

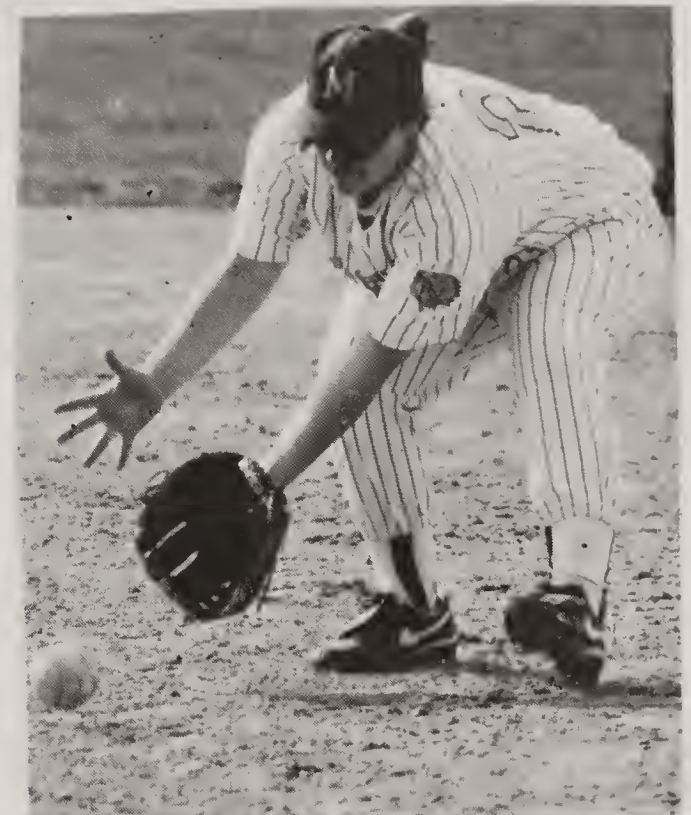

Their overall record was 7-9, but that does not sum up their season of hard work.

Their hard work, though, did not reap the award of making the state tournament. Their early season disappointments led to their exclusion from the tasty tournament.

Captains Shannon Cook and Kathryn Vozzella, led the team to a record that was better than their early season expectations. Their key victories were against Roxbury Latin and South Boston. These upsets were key components in their late season success.

Some individual accomplishments during the season were All-Star nominees: Laurie Manganello, Kathryn Vozzelle, and Amelia Griffin. Also, Lorrie Manganello ripped a mammoth shot that carried four-hundred feet off the Middle School. The "dong" was a Medfield record. Also, Erin Harrington recieved the Sportsmanship Award, and Amelia Griffin recieved the MVP.

All in all the softball team had a very successful season.

Boy's Track Tri-TVL Champs

by Jen Mohan
and Wonderdogg

The Medfield High School boy's spring track team started the season as the favorite to win the TVL title, a goal they accomplished last season. Even though the expectations were great, the team lived up to almost every one of them, finishing the season with only one loss to Holliston. Even with the disappointment of not going the entire regular season undefeated, the boys managed to have a sensational year.

Led by co-captains Jeff Mohan and Brian Polyage, the team compiled a 7-1 overall record and split a three-way tie for the TVL title with Westwood and Holliston.

The depth of the team was largely in these seniors, also along with seniors Scott Greenaway running the 800 and the mile, Brian Gavaletz throwing the shot putt and the discus, and Ian Wells running the 100 and 100 relay.

Great talent was also found in the junior class, with Peter Grillo, Pat Clausen and Bernie Saraglou all adding greatly to the team's success.

Medfield also had success in the Class D State Meet, with Jeff Mohan winning the 330 hurdles, Peter Grillo finishing 3rd in the 800, and Brian Polyage placing 5th in the two mile.

In addition to the Class D Meet,

Mohan and Grillo ran in the All-State Meet, with Mohan placing 5th in the 330 hurdles, qualifying for the New England Meet, and Peter Grillo placing 9th in the 800.

On the season and the team, co-captain Jeff Mohan said, "We had a very talented crew. We had a great senior class and a good season overall. The loss to Holliston was a great disappointment, but I still consider the season to be a success."

GIRL'S TRACK TEAM FINISHES IN SECOND PLACE

Jennifer DiGiovanni
Kate Nelson

Row 2: Coach Bubba, Courtney DiSchino, Kelly Elam, Collen Brown, Anne-Marie Chouinard, Sarah Magyar, Sarah Johnson, Lauren Young, Sara Petras, Kate Nelson, and Coach Slason.

The girls spring track team ended this season in second place with a record of 7-1, losing by two points to their biggest rival, Holliston. The girls were coached by Mike Slason and assisted by Coach Brian "Bubba" Frazier. Sarah Johnson and Sarah Magyar were the two co-captains for the 1996 spring season.

Coach Slason said that the the season was "outstanding" and went on to comment that the girls had done better than he could have ever expected.

There were a number of school and TVL records set by the team this year. Freshman superstar Uzo Aduba set a new school record in the 200 meters and a new school and TVL record in the 100 meters; sophomore "Fly'n" Ryan Shean set a new school record in the 400 meters and a new school and TVL record in the 300 hurdles; and junior Kate Nelson set a new school record in the 800 meters and a school and TVL record in the 1600 meters.

Other highlights were the 4 by 400 meter team who set a new school and TVL record at the state meet on June 1. Sophomore Katie Wilson started the relay for the Warriors followed by freshman Uzo Aduba and junior Kate Nelson. The relay was anchored by sophomore Ryan Shean. A new record for the sprint medley was also set this year for the school and TVL. Those involved in the sprint medley included Kate Nelson, Ryan Shean, Lindsay Meredith, and Uzo Aduba.

Medfield had a number of All Stars this season. Some of them were, freshman Uzo Aduba; sophomores Liz Nelson, Erin Barry, and Ryan Shean; juniors Kelly Elam and Kate Nelson; and senior Anne-Marie Chouinard. Senior captains Sarah Johnson and Sarah Magyar both received honorable mentions along with Lindsay Meredith and Erin Barry.

It is easy to see that the girls track team did exceptionally well this season. Coach Slason said that next year he thinks that the girls will be TVL champs and that they have the potential to win the state meet. All the girls have high hopes for next year's season.

Tennis team makes the grade

Continuing with their tradition of having above average seasonal records, the 1996 men's tennis team has lived up to the talent of previous year's tennis Warriors.

Coached by Vin Joseph, players Greg Berks, Andy Hession, Matt Keigan, Joe Cope, Ian and Dean Taylor, Sean Carroll, Wes Frank, Kevin Barry, Mark Crowley, Matt Dunn, Matt Monihan, and captains Mike Crowley and Mike Cianfrocca managed to pull an overall record of 9-7 and a Tri-Valley League record of 6-6. Six of the seven overall losses were made in a single game.

Through successful singles and doubles play the team has lasted into the month of June. They qualified for the State Tournament where they were seeded 16. The team won their preliminary round match, but unfortunately they lost in one of their next matches to Sharon High.

To further show how strong the team was they compiled six TVL All-stars. The All-stars were Matt Keigan, Andy Hession, Mike Cianfrocca, Mike Crowley, Dean Taylor, and Sean Carroll.

Girls' tennis completes another successful season

by Colleen Brown and Alexis Tonti

This year's girls' tennis team, led by senior co-captains Sarah Hess and Megan Lewis, completed another successful season. Despite unforeseen obstacles such as injuries, they were able to end the season strong. The Warriors finished with a 10-5 record, which qualified them for the state tournament.

Two all-stars were named from this year's tennis squad: Sarah Hess and Jen Tabor, who compose the first doubles team. First singles player Jen Mohan and second singles player Sara Phelps were also awarded honorable mentions.

Highlights of the tennis season include two convincing 4-1 wins over Westwood, who had ousted Medfield from tournament during the first round last spring.

The Tennis Warriors also performed well in this year's tournament, sailing past Archbishop Williams by a score of 5-0 in the first round. However, the team suffered a 1-4 loss when they were unable to best the number three seed, Wellesley, during the second round of tournament play.

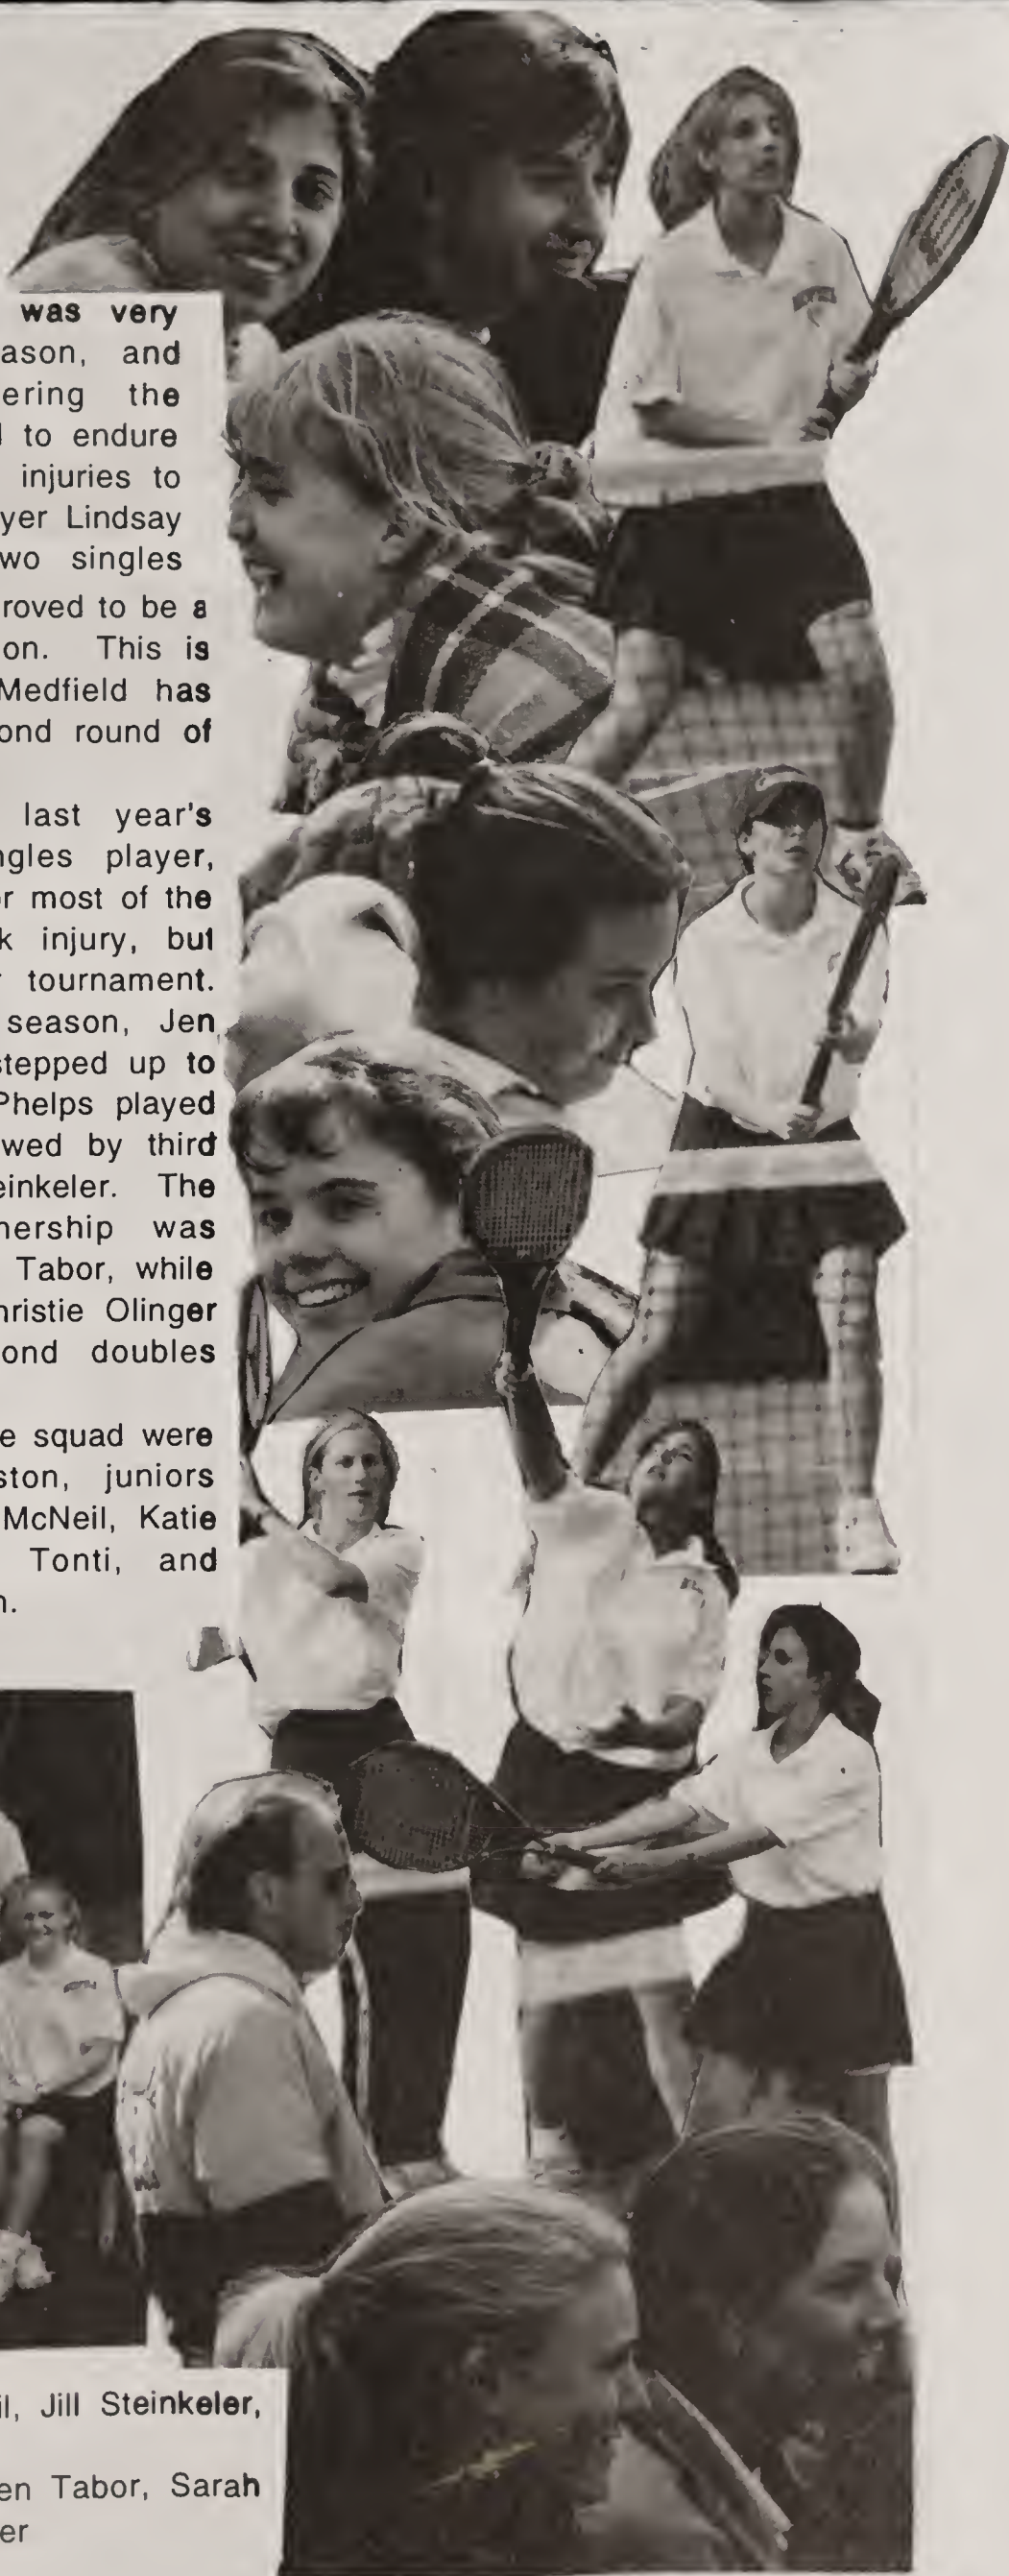

Coach Ross Irwin was very pleased with the season, and commented, "Considering the adversities that we had to endure during the season, i.e. injuries to number one singles player Lindsay Cutter and number two singles player Jen Mohan, it proved to be a very successful season. This is the first time that Medfield has advanced to the second round of the state tournament.

Lindsay Cutter, last year's undefeated first singles player, was unable to play for most of the season due to back injury, but returned in time for tournament. During the regular season, Jen Mohan successfully stepped up to fill the spot. Sara Phelps played second singles, followed by third singles player Jill Steinkeler. The first doubles partnership was Sarah Hess and Jen Tabor, while Megan Lewis and Christie Olinger played on the second doubles team.

Other players on the squad were senior Karley Winston, juniors Julie Fisher, Megan McNeil, Katie Beard, and Alexis Tonti, and freshman Amy Cannon.

BOYS' VOLLEYBALL TEAM WORKS HARD

BY: BETHANY PANTUCK
AND HEATHER FOLEY

Members of the Medfield Boys' volleyball team summed up this year's season with one word: "disappointing". Going into the season with high hopes, the team was discouraged by their final record of 6 and 10, which was not strong enough to land them a position in the tournament run.

The team was laden with talent, but unfortunately they couldn't seem to bring it together. Coach Hastings commented, "We overlooked the basics, the simple things you have to do to win."

Even though the members of the team were frustrated at the end of the season, their record does not reflect all of the achievements that they accomplished during the season. The Warriors beat Holliston, one of their rivals who ended with a record of 8 and 2. They also beat Natick, who finished first in the Bay State Conference with a record of 16 and 2. This win showed the competitiveness of the Warriors within the Western Alliance League.

Some low points of the season were the two losses that the volleyball team suffered against another major rival, Milford. Although these games were close, this was a tremendous let-down for the team and set the tone for most of the season.

One of the players accredits the team's performance to their lack of experience. Having only three seniors, Co-captain Jason Kendrick, Kevin Cimo, and Keith Doucette, the Warriors are a relatively young team with juniors Brendan Greene, Nick Bryan, Ed Terrenzi, Co-captain Andy Kepple and sophomores Dan Tabor, Matt Kepple, and Dan Buckley.

This year was a good learning experience for the team and should prove to be beneficial to next year's season. Led by future captains Nick Bryan, Brendan Greene and Andy Kepple, the Warriors again have high hopes for next season.

Golf Team Concludes Successful Season

by Brandon Daly and Lindsay Cutter

The Medfield Golf Team recently concluded a very successful season, compiling a final record of 14-4. Although the team has only been in existence for two years, it qualified for this year's state tournament, and posted a fine showing. The highlight of Medfield's season was a dramatic 1-point win over eventual Tri-Valley League champion Ashland.

The team was led by seniors Chris Connolly, David Pollicelli, co-captain Andrew Dennehy, Chris May, and Sven West. As much as these seniors will be missed, there is a very strong underclassmen presence on the team. Junior co-captain Greg Flynn will man the helm next year with help from other juniors Matt Gaines, Mike Konevich, Neil Mackenzie, and Dave Samman. Sophmores Mike Curran and Dan Tosches also contributed greatly, as did freshmen Brian Goltz, Mark Lennon, and Kevin Roof.

The team started the season with numerous fine showings, going undefeated for most of the first half of the season. Tough losses to Holliston and Hopkinton hurt the "Golfin' Warriors", but they managed to put those behind them and finished out the season with a .778 winning percentage.

Junior Mike Konevich had this to say about the season, "Golf was a great learning experience for me; I met some great people, got to know my mentor and coach

Mr. Callahan, and generally had a very good time." Mike also added, "Besides, after playing football this Fall, almost anything would be a more enjoyable pastime."

Co-captain Greg Flynn also enunciated the fact that, "We still have much to learn as a team, but this year was a extremely solid 'Building block' if you will, for us to reach to greater heights with next year."

While the Golf Team will be without the great leadership core of this year's seniors come next Spring, many see the program to be improving every year and a possible Tri-Valley League title in store for 97'.

Swashbuckling Senior Cruise

STUDENTS AWARDED AT HONORS RECOGNITION NIGHT

by Lauren Klempa and Sarah Hervey

The annual Honors Recognition Night took place on May 8, 1996, at Medfield High School. The purpose of this evening is to honor the academic achievements of students in grades nine through twelve. The chosen students receive awards for their outstanding performance in school in the areas of academics and extra-curricular activities.

The ceremony began with "The Star Spangled Banner" sung by Denise Tracey. Jill Mariani, Student Council President, gave a speech welcoming the audience to Honors Recognition Night, and then introduced the other members of the Student Council; Philip Gambardella, Steve McManama, and Elizabeth McKeever.

Certificate awards were given to outstanding students in Art, English, Journalism, Literary Magazine, and Speech. Awards were also given to students who had excelled in Foreign Languages, Mathematics, Music, Physical Education, the Sciences, Technology (Engineering Drawing), and Social Studies. Other awards were given by such organizations and businesses as the Society of Women Engineers and Bausch and Lomb.

Special awards given were the Book Awards, to Juniors from four different colleges, the Lamp of Learning to seniors in the top ten percent of their class, and the 21st Century Literary Publication Award given to one student from each grade for most improvement in English. The National Council of Teachers gave a writing award, and the Daughters of the American Revolution also gave their award.

Honors Recognition Night ended with new Student Council Members taking their positions. President is now James Typadis, vice - President is Jason Wardwell, Secretary is William Webb, and Treasurer is David Jordan. The evening ended with Jim Typadis' acceptance speech as the new President of the Student Council.

HONOR SOCIETY SUCESSFULLY RECRUITS MORE SMART STUDENTS

The Induction to the National Honor Society held at school on May 14 to induct newly elected members proved successful with its speeches, awards, and smiling faces.

The evening kicked off with the President of the society, Brian Polagye, welcoming the crowd. He then progressed into his speech on scholarship, which is one of the four qualities that a new member should posses. Polagye presented the new seniors to be inducted and warmly welcomed them to the society. These new members were Hillary Carey, Jonathan Hopewell, David O'Leary, and Ian Wells.

Dan Arnold, Vice President of the National Honor Society, gave a speech on the second honorable quality of a member, which is leadership. The eight new junior members inducted were Brandon Daly, Brendon Greene, Andrea Halliday, Gerald Kazanjian, Andrew Kepple, Christie Olinger, Danielle Paquette, and Kevin Roache. They were received in open arms by fellow members.

The third speech of the evening was given by Secretary Michael Cianfrocca on the subject of service. He then proceeded to induct new sophomore members to the society, which included Erin Barry, Daniel Buckley, Daniel Callahan, Laura Cohen, Michael Curran, Stephen Fleming, Jonathan Gibbs, Kristen Greene, Caitlin Harrington, Emily Harrington, Emily Harrison, Benjamin Hayes, Juline Holland, Suvi Hynynen, Kimberly Kelly, Aaron Liber, Michael McCabe, Andrew McCarthy, Erin McNeil, Elizabeth Palmieri, Kenneth Pickering, Justin Riceburg, Rebecca Sherwood, Anne Vozzella, Lily Wang, Katherine Wilson, and Gregory Woo.

A speech by Stephen Thompson, treasurer, was given on character, specifically that of a society member. Following this speech was a presentation of Service Awards, which are given out to students on the society who have devoted large amounts of time to helping others learn and understand, specifically by tutoring other students. Receiving these awards were juniors Jill Steinkiller and Kenneth Cole, and senior Brian Chase.

Dr. Christopher Martes, Superintendent of Schools, made brief remarks, then introduced the Installation of new officers for the upcoming year. Matthew Lahaie is the new President of the National Honor Society; Kerry Jordan is the Vice President; Merideth McMillan is Treasurer; and the new Secretary is Alexis Tonti.

Closing remarks to the evening were given by Principal Robert McGuire, and the crowd then progressed into the cafeteria for a buffet dinner.

Mr. Shapiro, advisor of the National Honor Society, commented on the overall accomplishments of the society this year. "Peer tutoring worked exceptionally well, and the phoneathon brought in $2,100 in scholarships." He felt that this year was very successful.

Other opinions of the same note were received from Matt Lahaie, next year's president. "We didn't get the blood drive done because of the gym renovations. In the future, I would like to see some fund raisers take place, and perhaps different ones will be added to bring us more profit. Brian Polagye did a great job."

The National Honor Society shows promise for the coming years. Its members visibly show the four major characteristics of a good student- scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

Senior Girls Have Great Time At Hannah Adams Tea

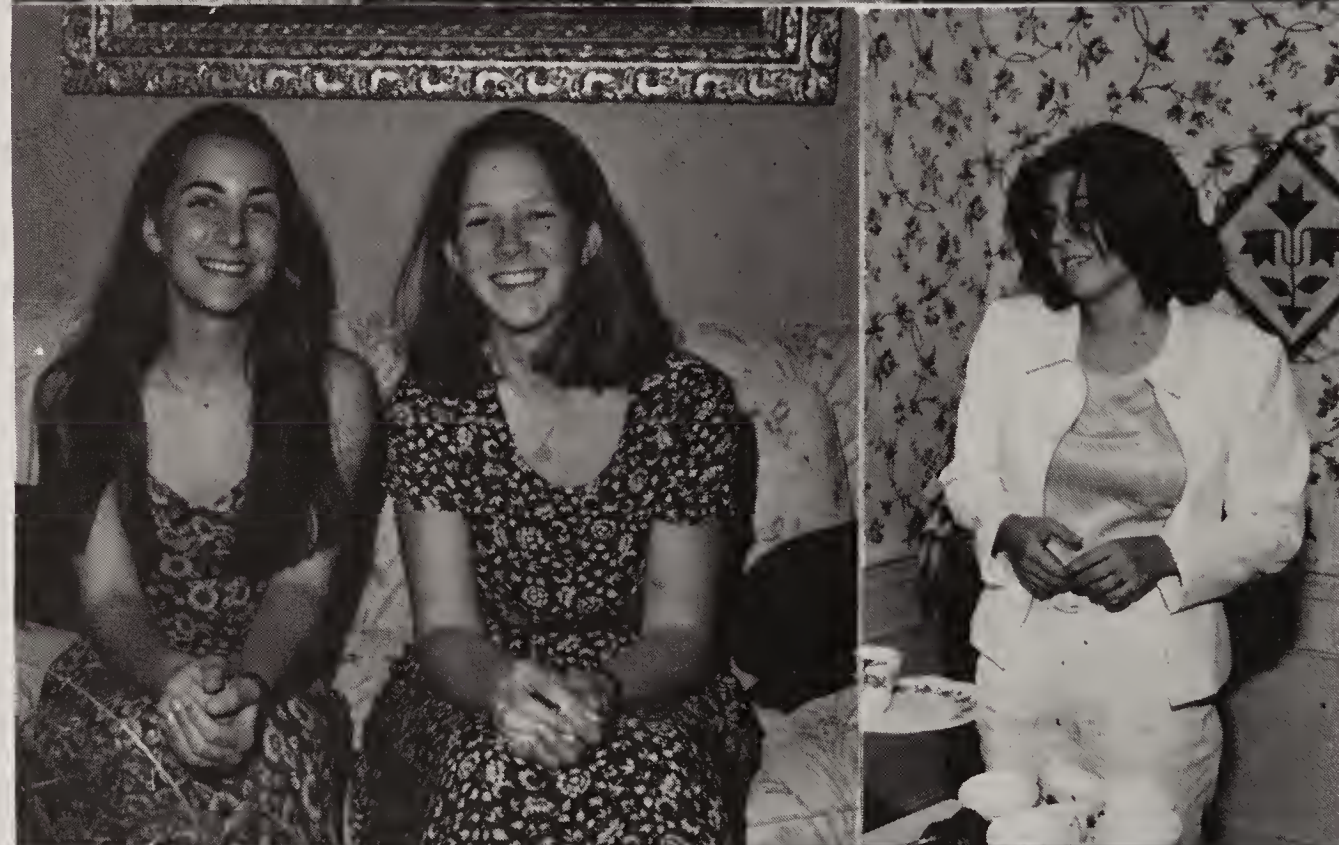

by
Andy Kepple and Matt Keigan

The last few months of high school for seniors were busy ones. With such events as the Prom, the all night graduation party, college visitations, and the Senior Cruise, there was hardly any time to relax.

One of those few moments of relaxation occurred on May 15, when the Hannah Adams Womens Club hosted the Senior Girls Tea. The event was held at the home of Mrs. Anne Davidson, a Hannah Adams Club member, on Indian Hill Rd.

The purpose of the Tea is to bring all the girls of the Senior Class together for a chance to meet new people. Due to the oppressive heat of the day, punch was the beverage of choice. Also on the menu were chocolate covered strawberries, heart shaped chicken salad, tuna sandwiches, cream puffs, and an array of fresh fruits.

Despite the heat, the day was enjoyed by all. The senior girls appreciated the experience not only for the social reasons, but also for the chance to meet in a formal setting. They also enjoyed being able to finally take some time off and relax.

An Evening of the Arts

by Becky Briggs

The art festival was presented on May 16 in the cafeteria and auditorium. It consisted of the student art exhibit, music performances by the chamber singers, and a performance of the first "First Time Club."

Art students were allowed to choose what they wanted on display. The amount of years a student has been taking art class determined the number of pieces a student could present at the show. Studio students were given a couple of panels to work with. They also created their own individual name tag, that represented themselves, to place over their work. Some studio students decided to occupy their space with painted furniture, beads, sculptures, and their sketch books.

All of the exhibits stood out from one another and made for a very impressive display. Kevin Cimo presented his intricate fimo beads. Hillary Carry made a quilt and showed her personally designed dress with sketches and pictures of it. Sage Bruso had a easel with flowers she had painted.

All of the studio exhibits were well done. It was also very interesting to see all the different types of feelings and style each individual portrayed in their work.

Many other art students presented clay sculptures and other favorite pieces they had made through the year. Throughout the evening different students played pieces of music in the cafeteria. The chamber singers sang for about a half hour in the auditorium. Cast members from the "Secret Garden" (Andrea Haliday, Denise Tracy, and Jessica Paul) sang songs from the play. The "First Time Club" had a substance abuse play.

The evening proved to be a big success with good feed back. Students were encouraged by what others had to say.

PROM '96 A SUCCESS

BY: Melissa Armstrong

On Friday May 10, the upperclassmen traded their jeans and shirts in for gowns and tuxedos. That evening was the annual Junior/Senior Prom and was a success.

Beginning at 7:00 at the Lake Pearl Ballroom, in Wrentham, the fun-filled evening began. Without the efforts of the Prom Committee, the night and decorations would not have come together.

This year's Senior Class King and Queen was no surprise! Kevin Barry and Denise Tracey carried the most votes, with Alexis Allen and J.J, and Jon Clark and Deb DeVasto being the runners up.

The Junior Class King and Queen wasn't much of a shocker either. David Jordan and Kelly Elam received the most votes. The runners up were Lindsay Cutter and Robby Webb, and Katie Robinson and Dave O'Leary.

Unfortunately, the decision on the Prom theme "Wonderful Tonight" was not liked by everyone. The food and music could have been better, but the night still went well.

The Prom was a night filled with memories, friends, fun, and plenty of pictures. It is a night we will always remember and reflect upon in years to come,

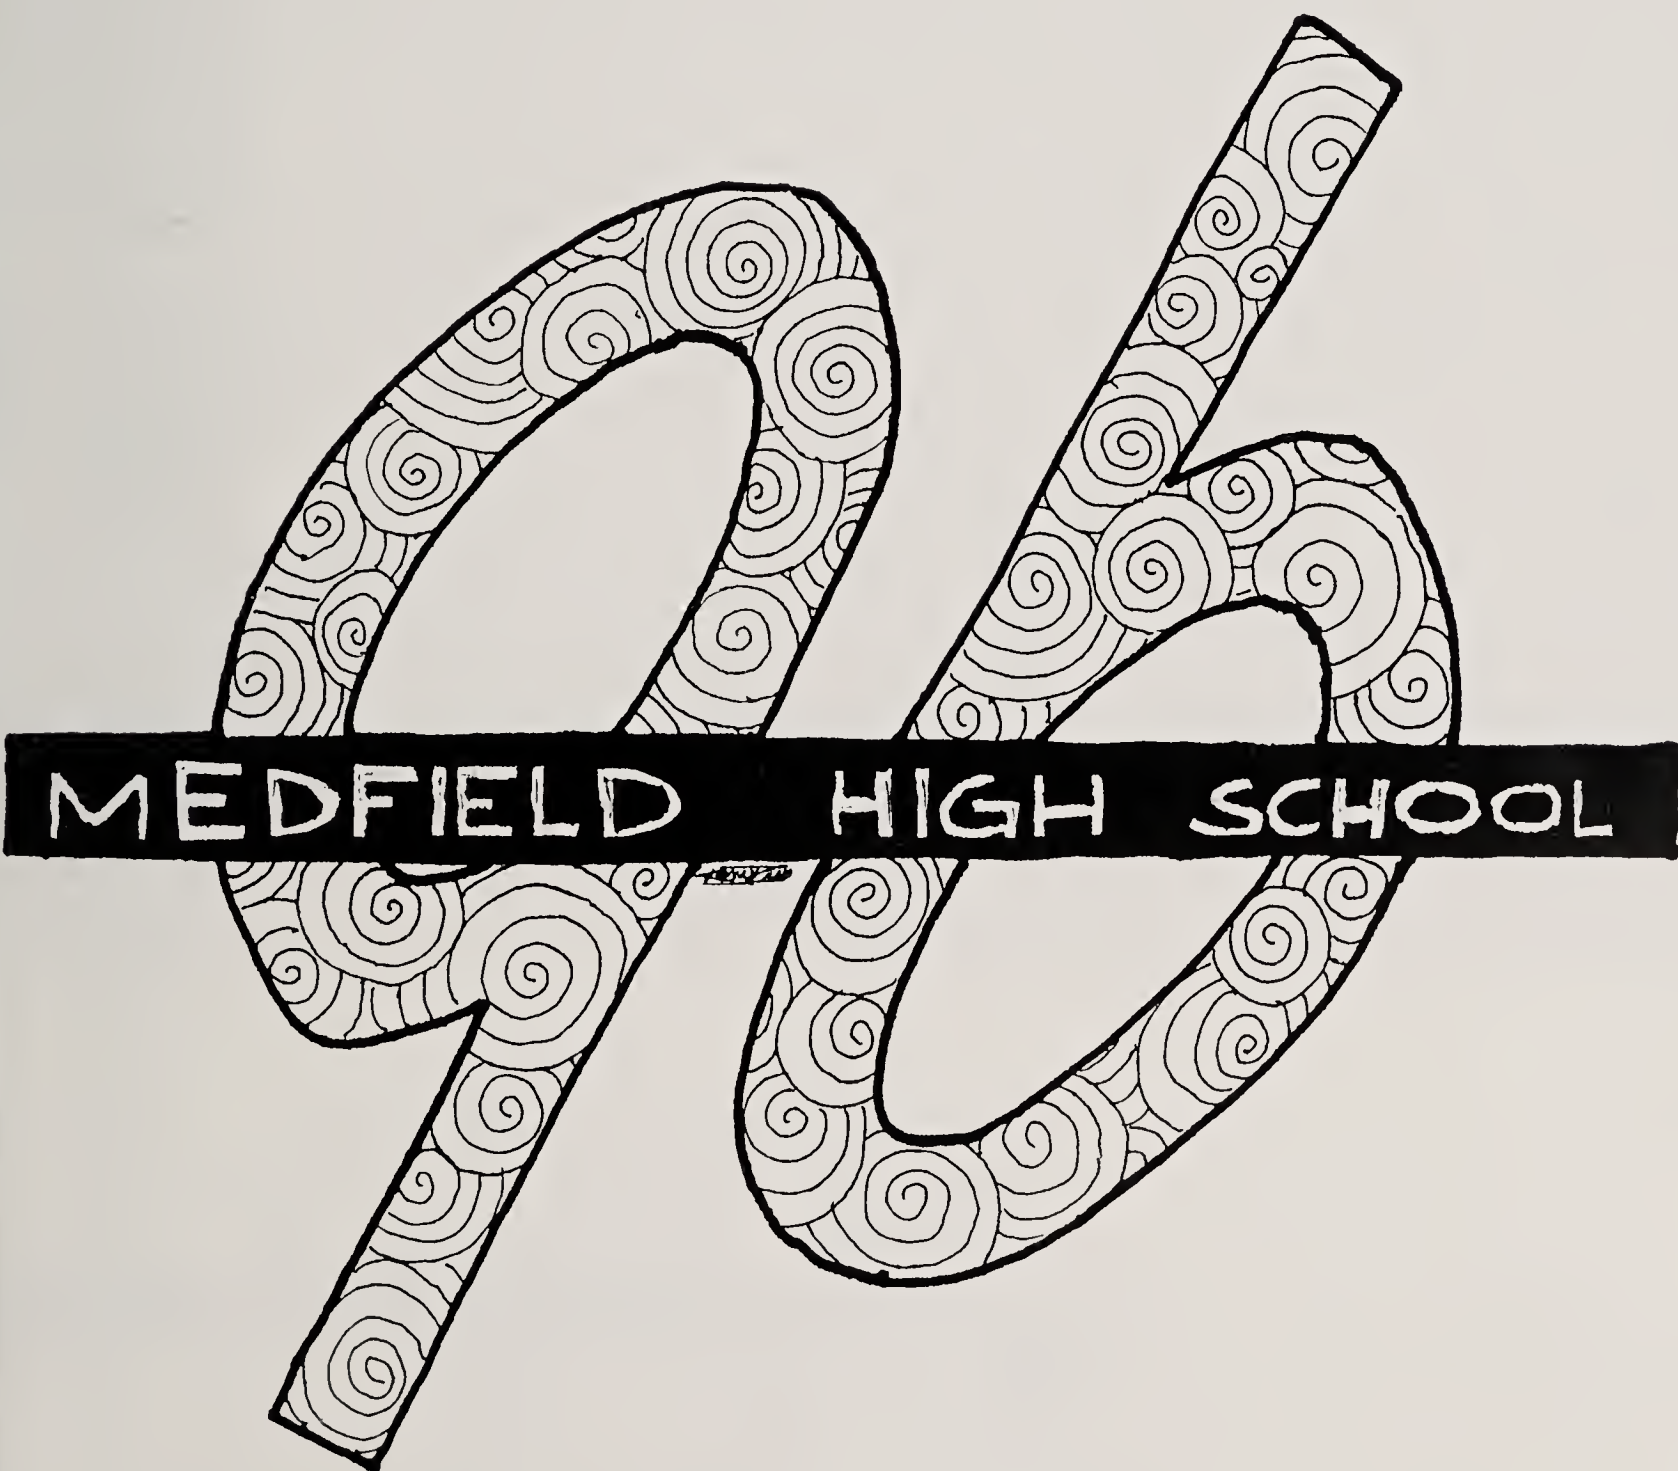

In your time
The innocence will fall away
In your time
The mission bells will toll
All along
The corridors and river beds
There'll be a sign
In your time

Towering waves
Will crash across your southern capes
Massive storms
Will reach your Eastern shores
Fields of green
Will tumble through your summer days
By design
In your time

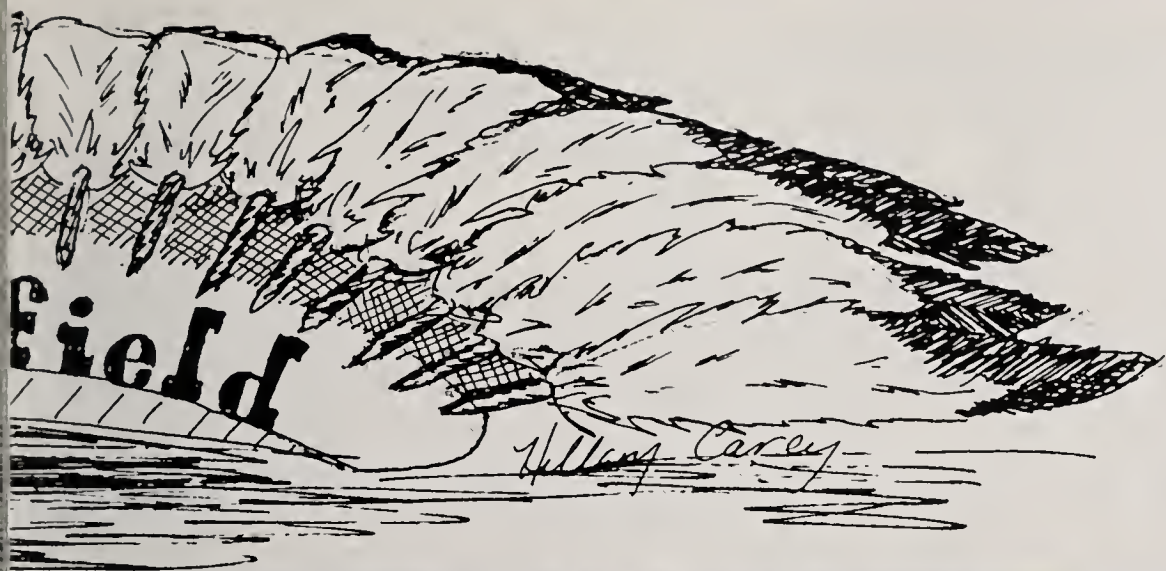

Feel the wind
And set yourself the bolder course
Keep your heart
As open as a shrine
You'll sail the perfect line

And after all
The dead ends and lessons learned
After all
The stars have turned to stone
There'll be a peace
Across the great unbroken void
All benign
In your time
You'll be fine
In your time

now must abuse it?
Taking advantage of us
little folk that go without.
Awarding punishment;
Scouring our privileges and repossessing our rights.
Pointed at control; not letting us be.
How much more of this can we take?

"FISH"

As I open my arms on this strange and glorious night
I'm infatuated with the wind, and hope to take flight

As I leave the dependent planes below

I look down to wave goodbye, and look up to greet hello

All my life the bills have been paid

All my life the table's been laid

But now life will take a turn

For my wallet is to burn

WISH ME LUCK!

MEDFIELD CROSS COUNTRY CAPTAINS — Kristyn Morrissey, Meaghan Curran, Brian Polagye, Scott Greenaway
(Also appearing is Coach Kraemer but he's not a captain)

We are all basically hedonists. That's what makes us human. And we were made to want pretty simple things: Food. Water. Shelter. Warmth. And pleasure. We want what feels good. We need the thrill that comes from being good at something. The thrill of doing what we weren't sure we could ever actually do. Nobody wants the thrill more than a runner. The high, the scream, the finish line that keeps going, and going, and going. Because of course there isn't one. Now a runner runs because he has faith. Faith that the road will carry him. Faith his knees will last one more mile. And one more mile. And he knows that running isn't food. And it isn't shelter. And it isn't even, at the end of the day, really all that warm. But it is how he finds pleasure. And on every road, there it is again. We are all, basically hedonists inside. We want what feels good. We need what gives us pleasure. We want the thrill, the rush we get from going up that hill or across that finish line or one mile more than we ever thought we would. Or could. When you join a team you join a bunch of other people who want the same thrill you want. Even if you play in the rain. Even if you run up a hill. Even if you have no idea where the finish line is supposed to be. You join a team to be part of something bigger than you. Not better; but more. And maybe in a team you are just a piece of the pie. But without you it is lousy tasting pie.

WE GET BY WITH A LITTLE HELP FROM OUR FRIENDS . . . B.

You
 If I see a thousand more faces, and learn a thousand more names,
 yours will still remain more familiar.
 I will not forget
 You who held my hand and made me laugh —
 You who played with me,
 smiling through sweat and tears —
 You who sat in the desk next to mine,
 and passed me in halls,
 listening for bells that rang too soon.
 A bell is ringing now.

This book will open again someday,
 dusty and weathered,
 and your picture will stare back —
 faded black and white,
 a paragraph of memories,
 and I will wonder if you became what you thought you could,
 who you thought you would be.

I will not forget.
